Guide to the A. Babbitt letter

Guide to the Pauline Aars Letter
A letter from Pauline Aars of Curacao, Netherlands Antilles to Phyllis Bergagna of Freeport, Illinois about the launch and landing of Apollo 11 on the moon.

Edwin A. Abbott papers (Guide to this collection)
Files relating to the "Alabama Claims" handled by this Boston attorney concerning damage inflicted by the Confederate commerce raider C.S.S. Shenandoah during the final months of the Civil War.

Guide to Lecture Notes on John W. Abercrombie
Notes for a class lecture on Abercrombie, president of the University of Alabama. Includes information on the construction of University buildings during his tenure, as well as his conflicts with former acting president and Latin professor William S. Wyman.

Macon Abernathy papers (Guide to this collection)
This collection consists of three pieces of Abernathy family correspondence discussing the outbreak of the Civil War and the return of Macon, a University of Alabama student, to his hometown of Jacksonville, Alabama, to enlist in a local company. Also contains an 1878 obituary of Macon’s father, Major Miles W. Abernathy.

Guide to the Thomas P. Abernethy manuscript
Two galleys with corrections and one type-written manuscript of Abernethy’s study, The Formative Period in Alabama, subsequently published as part of the historical series of the Alabama Department of Archives and History. It is a social and political history and originated as Abernethy’s doctoral thesis at Harvard University.

William P. Abrams diaries
Diaries of travels from New Hampshire to Alabama; to Havana, Cuba, and to the midwestern United States. The majority of entries were written in Gainesville, Alabama.

Guide to the ACIPCO records
Contains correspondence and production reports of this Birmingham, Alabama, cast iron company.

Jacob Ackerly Letter (Guide to this collection)
Letter from clerk discussing his travels and the city climate, population, agriculture, and business, including Cincinnati's trade of pork, flour, and whiskey. Letter compares it to labor and goods of the South.

Guide to the Adams family papers
This collection consists principally of correspondence among members of the Adams family, the majority of which concerns the Confederate service of a son, who wrote many letters detailing army life and conditions. It also contains papers related to Homer and John Adams, prisoners of war who died before returning home, and an Adams family history by Irving Adams, dated December 18, 1948.

Guide to the Charles E. Adams papers
Materials on the Jewish synagogue in West Blocton, Alabama, and a copy of his paper, "The 'Ah Goodies Ah Chem' Jewish Congregation of West Blocton, Alabama, 1905-1913."

Charles J. Adams Letter (Guide to this collection)
A letter from Charles J. Adams of Bridgewater, New York, to Dennis Pritchard of Wolcott, Connecticut, about his uncle who was recently married.

Guide to the John H. Adams papers
The correspondence of a Birmingham, Alabama, mining engineer, businessman, poet, and public servant. The collection also includes a small group of papers of Adams' son, John R. Adams, an attorney and realtor.

Guide to the Oscar W. Adams papers
Correspondence of this Birmingham, Alabama, minister of the A.M.E. Zion Church, principally concerning the struggle to remain solvent during the Great Depression. Also includes budget sheets, receipts, reports, and legal documents for this and other A.M.E churches throughout the South.

Roland Lee Adams (Guide to this collection)
This collection includes documents related to the army service of this York, Alabama, native; an essay, "When Dreams Come True," a biographical sketch, and three miscellaneous letters.

Guide to the W. S. Adkins bill of sale
Bill of sale and warrantee for a slave named Zeke, sold by W. S. Adkins of Lowndes County, Alabama, for $1600. The buyer's name is illegible.

Agnes Postcards (Guide to this collection)
Two postcards from Agnes, on vacation with her husband Chris in Los Angeles, California, to friends in Des Moines and Atlantic, Iowa. She gave updates on their trip and their plans for returning home to Iowa.

Guide to the A. M. Ahmed Letters
A letter from A.M. Ahmed, of Lahore, West Pakistan and editor of Taleem-e-Nau, to Helen V. Dykeman of Seattle, Washington, about the donation of used educational magazines.

Guide to the Al to Queen Ellen Letter
The collection contains a letter written from the Hotel Del Prado, most likely in Mexico City, Mexico, and provides news of daily life, information about the oil business, and observations relating to the native peoples of the area.

Guide to the Alabama Air National Guard letter of authorization
A photocopy of a memorandum to the commander to the 117th Tactical Reconnaissance Wing of the Alabama National Guard, authorizing transport of non-military personnel, including Governor George C. Wallace, from Montgomery to Tuscaloosa and back on April 30, 1963. Includes signatures of passengers on a waiver form.