About Tide Together

Tide Together utilizes a team approach to mentor graduate students who are currently pursuing or plan to pursue doctoral studies. Program participants are matched with faculty mentors and a graduate student peer mentor. The primary aim of the mentoring program is to help graduate students acquire the personal and professional skills needed for success in their future careers. Through a comprehensive approach, the Tide Together program addresses the academic and social needs imperative for success in a graduate program and beyond.

Mission Statement:

The purpose of the Tide Together Mentoring Program is to help graduate students acquire the personal and professional skills needed for success in their future careers.

The program hopes to provide resources on a variety of topics related to the successful completion of a graduate program, networking opportunities with faculty, graduate students, and other professionals in the larger community, academic guidance and encouragement through close and sustained contact with a mentoring team, and to create a system of accountability for faculty and students that facilitates the successful completion of a graduate program.
DISCLAIMER: The views expressed on this site do not reflect the views of the University of Alabama or any University department. No representation is made that the quality of goods or services provided is better than the goods or services provided by other entities. © 2011 University of Alabama Tide Together Program.