William E. Winter Reading Room

Located in Reese Phifer 234 and 224

Promoting individual and collaborative study and research, the Reading Room and Learning Commons offer discipline-based library and technology services for students, faculty, staff, and alumni of the College.

Resources

The Reading Room maintains collections of books, academic journals, trade magazines, Alabama newspapers, course reserves, and DVDs.

Computer Labs

- Internet and most software programs used throughout the College
- Color printers/copiers and scanners

Media Writing Center

- Mentoring for students who need extra help writing for media, including print/online news and public relations

Ready Reference

- Non-circulating style manuals, including AP, APA, MLA, Chicago, and Turabian

REESEsearch Help

- Research support

Small Group Study Rooms
- Reservations required
- Seating for three to six participants
- Internet and most software programs used throughout the College
- 55" television screens

Online Resources

Local Catalog

- Available online 24/7, on or off campus

University Libraries

- Available online 24/7, on or off campus
- Includes Communication and Mass Media Complete, Film and Television Index, ProQuest Historical Newspapers, America’s News, Scout, Simmons OneView, SRDS, Vogue Archive, and more.

Contact

Reading Room (205) 348-8668

Ann Bourne, College Librarian

Hours of Operation

Monday—Thursday

8 am—9 pm

8 am—4:45 pm (summer)

Friday

8 am—4:45 pm

Navigation

- About the College
  - ACEJMC Accreditation
  - Annual Report
  - Awards
  - Calendar
  - Clarence Cason Award in Nonfiction Writing