Innovation Management
The Office for Technology Transfer is primarily responsible for helping UA faculty, staff and students bring their innovations and technologies to market.

Start-Up Assistance
The Office for Technology Transfer gives assistance in analyzing potential opportunities to form a start-up businesses based upon UA technology.

Student Education
The Office for Technology Transfer provides guidance to interested students on intellectual property issues as well as UA’s policies & procedures.

What We Do

Looking for Help?

I'm an Inventor
Inventor Resources

I'm in Industry
Industry Resources

I'm a Student
Student Resources
The University of Alabama Office for Technology Transfer is primarily responsible for commercializing the innovations generated by UA faculty, staff and students, either through licenses to industry partners or via the formation of spin-off enterprises based on UA technologies.

>>Learn More