PREAMBLE

The people of Alabama have vested full management and control over the "state university" in a "board of trustees" (Ala. Const. Art. 14, Sec. 264); the Legislature of the State of Alabama has characterized the "governor and the state superintendent of education by virtue of their respective offices, and the trustees heretofore appointed from the different congressional districts of the state under the provisions of Sec. 264 of the Constitution, and such other members as may be from time to time added to the board of trustees and their successors in office" as a body corporate and has identified and named the corporation "The Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama" (Code of Alabama, 1940, Title 52, Sec. 486).
