The University of Alabama [UA] University Athletics Compliance Oversight Committee (UACOC) consists of all individuals who are key institutional players in the shared responsibility of compliance and student-athlete eligibility certification oversight. These players include: Undergraduate Admissions, the Office of the University Registrar, Student Financial Aid, and Student/Academic Services Programs.

More specifically the UACOC oversees and evaluates the adequacy of the UA's compliance and student-athlete eligibility certification programs in accordance with the NCAA Division I Manual, Southeastern Conference rules, and applicable UA policies and procedures. The UACOC is appointed by the President, and may act in his/her behalf, in the oversight of the UA student-athlete eligibility certification programs.

Membership
The voting membership of the UACOC shall consist of the Deputy Athletic Director, Faculty Athletic Representative [FAR], Past-Faculty Athletics Representative [if an active UA employee], two representatives from Academic Affairs, University Registrar, Associate Provost & Executive Director of Undergraduate Admissions, Director of Student Financial Aid, Associate Athletic Director for Compliance, and Associate Athletic Director for Student Services.

The UACOC will be chaired by the University Registrar. In the event that the University Registrar is unable to attend a meeting of the UACOC the University Registrar shall designate a committee member to act as chair at the UACOC meeting.

The UACOC may invite other persons to serve as ex officio members of the committee.

Meetings
The UACOC shall meet on a monthly basis or more frequently as needed from September through May. The committee will meet as needed during the months of June, July, and August. Evidence of the discussions of the UACOC and the actions taken by the committee should be reflected in recorded minutes of the meeting. A majority of members shall constitute a quorum and attendance will be recorded in the minutes.

Responsibilities
The Committee's specific responsibilities of oversight are as follows:

1. Provide leadership for the UA athletics compliance oversight program by promoting and supporting a risk-free culture that builds compliance consciousness into the daily activities of the University community.
2. Review and evaluate the compliance/student-athlete eligibility certification programs and ensure their effectiveness as it relates to: admissions, academic records/registration, financial aid, and student/academic service programs.
3. Review and recommend changes as needed in the role, responsibilities, and structure of UA offices with employees having direct responsibility for athletics compliance and the student-athlete eligibility certification programs.
4. Determines the athletics compliance risks at UA that require executive oversight.
   a. Recommend the allocation of resources; when necessary, to mitigate risks in athletics compliance as it relates to: admissions, academic records/registration, financial aid, and student/academic service programs.
   b. In collaboration with the Office of Intercollegiate Athletics and the key institutional players previously mentioned educate, promote individual learning and understanding as it relates to relevant intercollegiate athletic compliance issues.
5. Monitors the Office of Intercollegiate Athletics five-year audit schedule.
6. Receive and act on any relevant athletics compliance issues brought to the attention of the committee.
