APPROVAL OF THE MISSION STATEMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

Resolution on page 87

1. As a part of reaccreditation, SACS requires an institution’s mission statement be periodically reviewed and updated and subsequently approved by its governing board.
2. Our present mission is:
   - “To advance the intellectual and social condition of the people of the State through quality programs of teaching, research, and service.”
3. This mission has been reviewed by the Faculty Senate, Council of Deans and Executive Committee.
1. Based on input from these groups the following mission is proposed:
   - "To advance the intellectual and social condition of the people of the State, the nation, and the world through the creation, translation, and dissemination of knowledge with an emphasis on quality programs of teaching, research, and service."

2. We request your approval of the revised mission.

Following an opportunity for questions/comments, the Chair entertained a motion for approval for the sixth item. Trustee Vandervoort so moved, Trustee Brooks seconded, and the motion passed unanimously.

RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED by The Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama that it approves the Mission Statement for The University of Alabama attached as Exhibit A.

The University of Alabama Mission Statement

Our Mission

To advance the intellectual and social condition of the people of the State, the nation, and the world through the creation, translation, and dissemination of knowledge with an emphasis on quality programs of teaching, research, and service.

Our Vision

The University of Alabama will be the university of choice for the best and brightest students in Alabama and a university of choice for all students who seek exceptional educational opportunities. The University of Alabama will be a student-centered research university and an academic community united in its commitment to enhancing the quality of life, not only for all Alabamians, but for citizens of the nation and world.

Our Strategic Goals

- Advance the University's academic, research, scholarship and service priorities, consistent with a top tier university, and continue to promote growth and national prominence in these areas.

- Enhance the teaching, research and service mission of the University by retaining and recruiting outstanding faculty and staff.

- Enhance the University's learning environment to attract and retain excellent students.

- Develop a university-wide emphasis on leadership as a primary role of the flagship university of the State of Alabama.
