In the 4th course of this four-part series, Managing Performance and Behaviors, participants will learn to:

- conduct effective performance reviews
- identify desirable and undesirable behaviors
- recognize and reinforce positive behavior
- demand improvements
- apply progressive discipline when necessary

Participants can take this course immediately following Part III or at a later date if needed.