Admissions

Admissions for graduate students is handled by The University of Alabama. The link in the right menu will direct you to information about admissions on the University’s web site. To learn more about admissions to the PhD program, click here.

Faculty Profiles

The doctoral program has an outstanding graduate faculty, many of whom are well known within their specialties. The following gives a brief bio about each and a small sampling of their research publications.

Programs

The College of Communication and Information Sciences offers masters degree programs in each of the 5 departments of the college. In addition, the college offers a doctor of philosophy degree in communication and information sciences.

Contact

The Office for Graduate Studies is headed by Dr. Shuhua Zhou. He is assisted by Diane Shaddix, administrative assistant.

Phone: (205) 348-8593
Fax: (205) 348-6774

Mail:

Office for Graduate Studies, College of Communication and Information Sciences
P.O. Box 870172
478 Phifer Hall
Tuscaloosa, Al 35487-0172