Celebrate International Education Week with the University Libraries!

You’re invited to a live demonstration of Mango Languages: an interactive online program containing over 60 foreign and English language courses available to students through the Libraries’ subscriptions. Mango offers a variety of interactive tools to deliver both practical conversational skills and cultural insight that assists learners to speak languages intuitively.

Thursday, November 14th, 4:00-5:00 pm
Gorgas Library Room 109a

Sponsored by Capstone International Programs, the Alabama Digital Humanities Center, Gorgas Information Services, and the University of Alabama Libraries.
