THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA LIBRARIES

Information and Instructional Services Librarian (2 positions)

Position Summary:
The University of Alabama seeks a forward-thinking librarian with innovative ideas for learning-centered approaches to research and instructional services. The candidate will be assigned duties in instruction (80%) and reference in social sciences and humanities. In collaboration with the information services department, the candidate will develop, deliver and assess instruction for the Freshman Writing Program and participate in on-call and evening reference rotation.

Required qualifications:
- Master's degree in Library & Information Sciences from an ALA-accredited institution
- Knowledge of trends and services in academic libraries to support undergraduate and graduate education
- Knowledge of current and emerging trends in information literacy instruction and information technologies
- Awareness of new and emerging technologies and how they can be utilized in an academic library
- Ability to successfully initiate, track, and manage projects
- Excellent interpersonal, communication, and customer service skills and the ability to interact effectively with faculty, students and staff

Preferred qualifications:
- Experience providing reference/instructional services in an academic library setting, teaching experience, or knowledge of instructional methods
- Experience in developing tutorials and learning objects

Salary/Benefits:
Full-time position for non-tenure-earning renewable appointment (renewal based upon satisfactory performance review). Competitive salary.

To Apply:
Please apply online at https://facultyjobs.ua.edu/. A letter of application, resume, and names, address, phone numbers, and e-mail addresses of three references should be included.

Applications received by May 31, 2014 are assured of receiving full consideration.